Modern Slavery Statement

The following statement outlines Edmund Optics' commitment to ensuring that slavery and human trafficking are not tolerated in our business, or at any point within our supply chain.

Edmund Optics does not tolerate any form of human trafficking, exploitative practices or any other form of forced working, including:

- Slavery, debt bondage, servitude or any other form of coercive practice;
- the use of any form of forced/compulsory labour or exploitative practices including the confiscation of passports, travel documents or other official documentation;
- the trafficking of persons under a false or manipulated pretence.

Edmund Optics continues to maintain adherence to the UK Modern Slavery Act 2015, the California Supply Chain Transparency Act, as well as any other applicable anti-slavery laws.

This statement is valid for the most recently completed financial year, i.e. 6th April 2024 to 5th April 2025, as well as the current financial year, which began on 6th April 2025.
